

To Touch The Past

Table of Contents

The Fannin County – Copper Basin Geo Quiz

How They Got Their Names: Donna Eichelburger and Janet McDaniel

Near and Far: A Geography Lesson: Asa Dockery

Fairy Crosses: Ronnie Anderson

The Thompson Family Dictionary: K. Thompson

Appalachian English: A Colorful Dialect: K. Thompson

The First People

Nancy Ward, Beloved Woman of the Cherokee: Cindy Christopher

Cherokee Villages: Phyllis Thomas

Chief White Path: Jamie Ensley and K. Thompson

Gold Rush at Whitepath, Georgia: Gail Cook

Music of the Mountains

“Fiddling” John Carson: Joan Conner, Joy Stanley

Tommy Magness, Legendary Fiddler: Cynthia Maude

Allen Sisson: James Sisson

The North Georgia Grass: K. Thompson

Gospel, Singing Conventions and Shaped Note Harmony: K. Thompson

Interesting Folks and Facts

Grace Allen, Evangelist: K. Thompson

Immigrants from Lebanon and Greece: Howard Jabaley and K. Thompson

The Old Root Digger: Ethelene Jones

Arthur Woody, Barefoot Ranger of Suches: Perry Abernathy

Life in the Early 1900s to the 1940s

The Farm: K. Thompson

Old Time Religion: Robin Burns, Angie Buchanan

Epworth Spring of Faith- by Ethelene Jones

Camp Meetings: Lorene Payne

Homecomings, Decorations and Other Church Traditions: K. Thompson

One Room Schools: Sara Abernathy, Kim Beavers

Being Young 1900-1940: G. Ray

Country Stores and Grist Mills: Kim Beavers,

The Mill at Skennah: Lee Stewart and Brian Stiles

Horse Swappings: Lorene Payne

Chestnut Gap- by Ethelene Jones

Spinning and Weaving: Kathy Johnson, Robin Welch

Electricity, Telephones, and Other New Fangled Inventions: Robin Parks

Early Doctors: K. Thompson

African- Americans in Fannin County: K. Thompson

Moonshine: Shirley Sisson, Juanita Mealer

Black Panthers and Other Critters: Renita Patterson

Hangings in Fannin County: Cathy Barnes

Early Postal Carriers: K. Thompson

Epilogue:

Coming Home: The Annual Reunion at Uncle John Thompson's Home Place

Nora Thompson's Fried Pies